

Mayview Regional Service Area

Community Inpatient, EAC, and RTF
Utilization

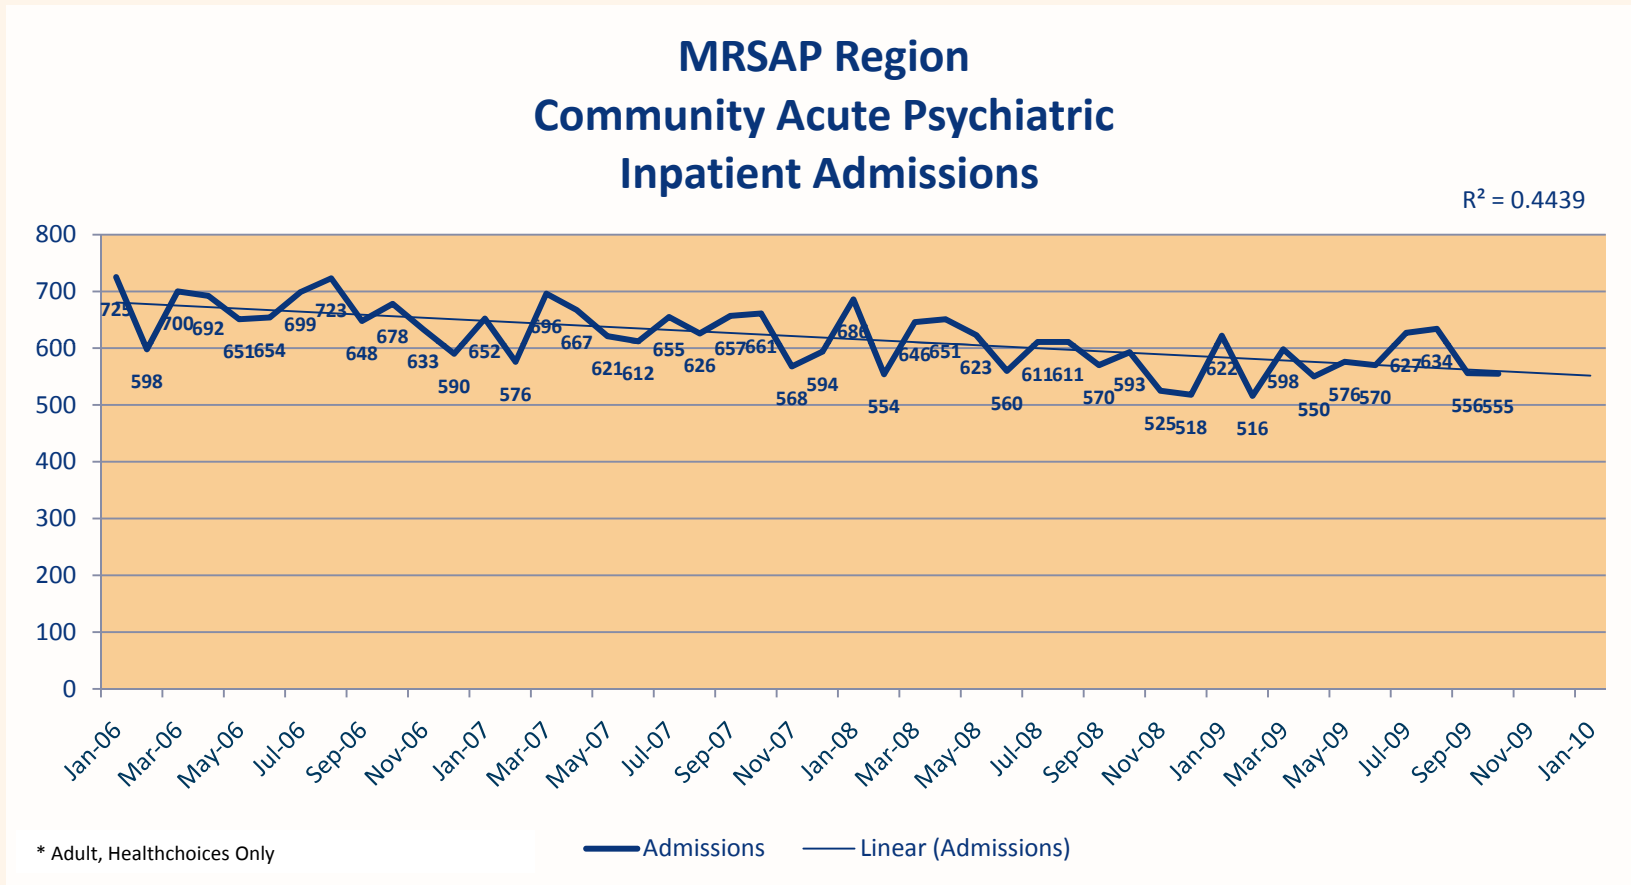

July 2006 – October 2009

Findings

Tracking since July 2006

- For the region, inpatient admissions have slowly decreased over the period; however, recently there was a spike in August 2009.
- For the region, Average Length of Stay has trended slightly upward: just over one day for the period.

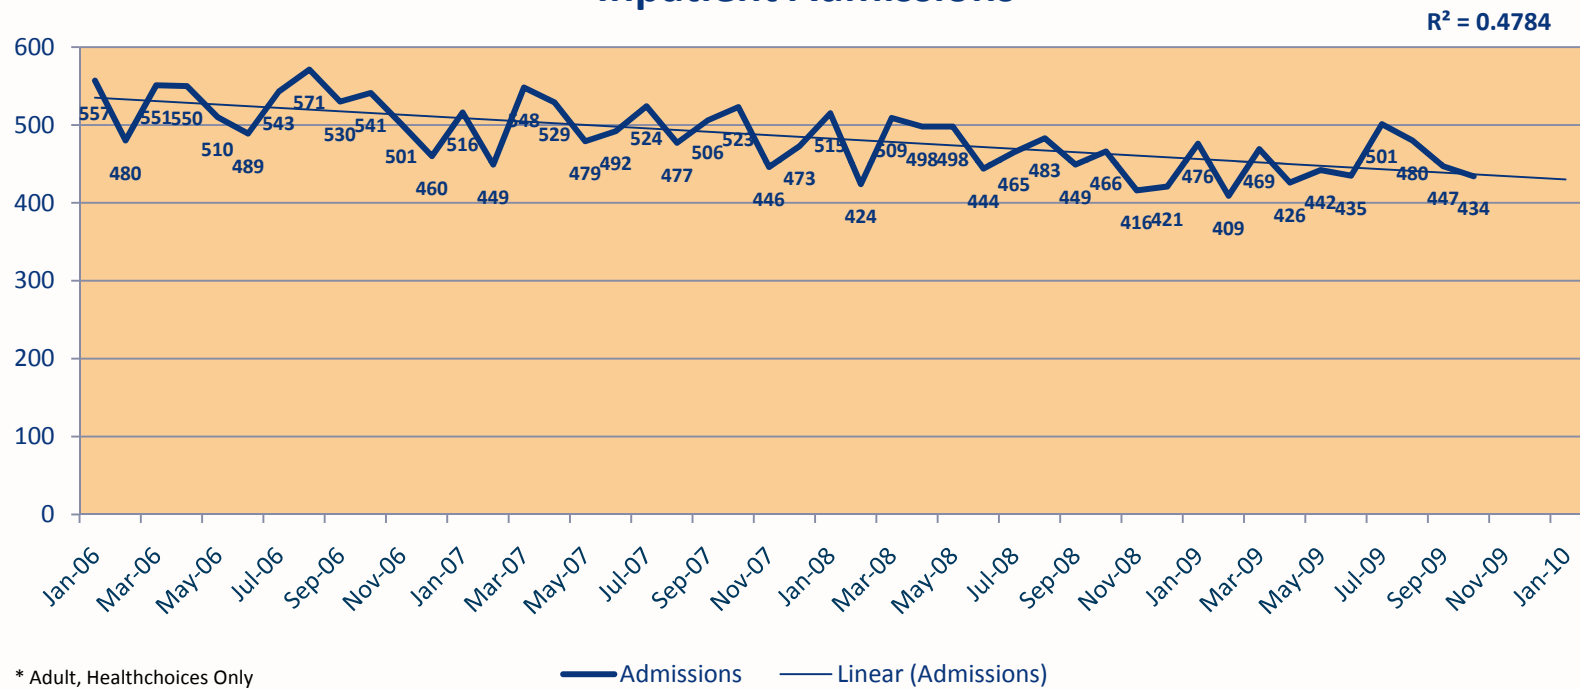

Inpatient Admissions

- For the region, there continues to be a downward trend.

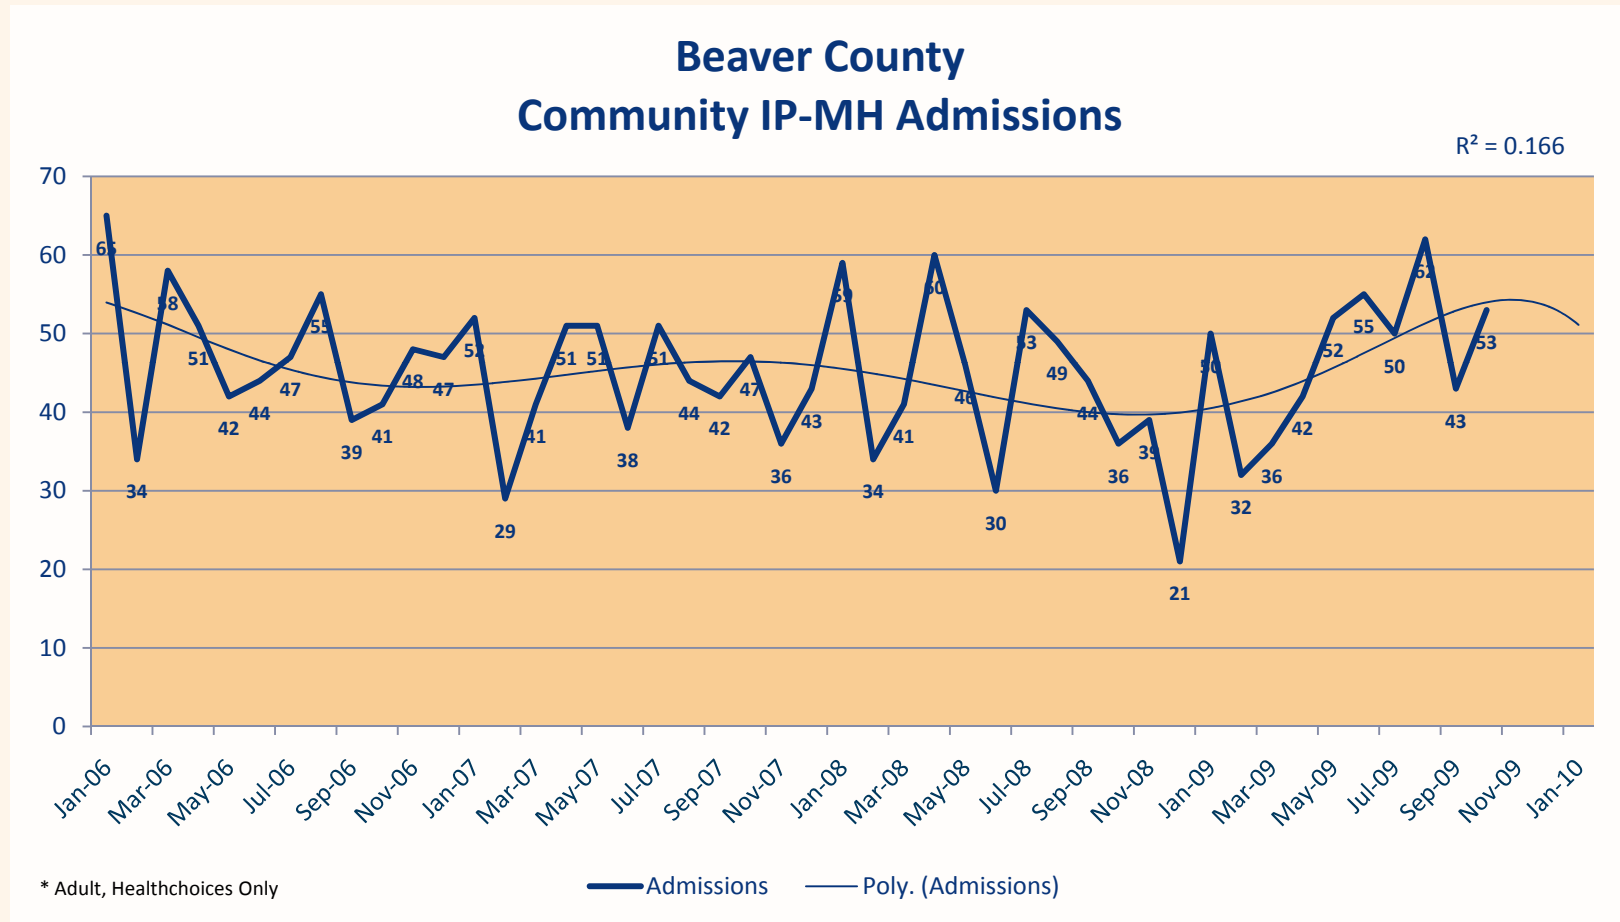

Inpatient Admissions

Allegheny County Community Acute Psychiatric Inpatient Admissions

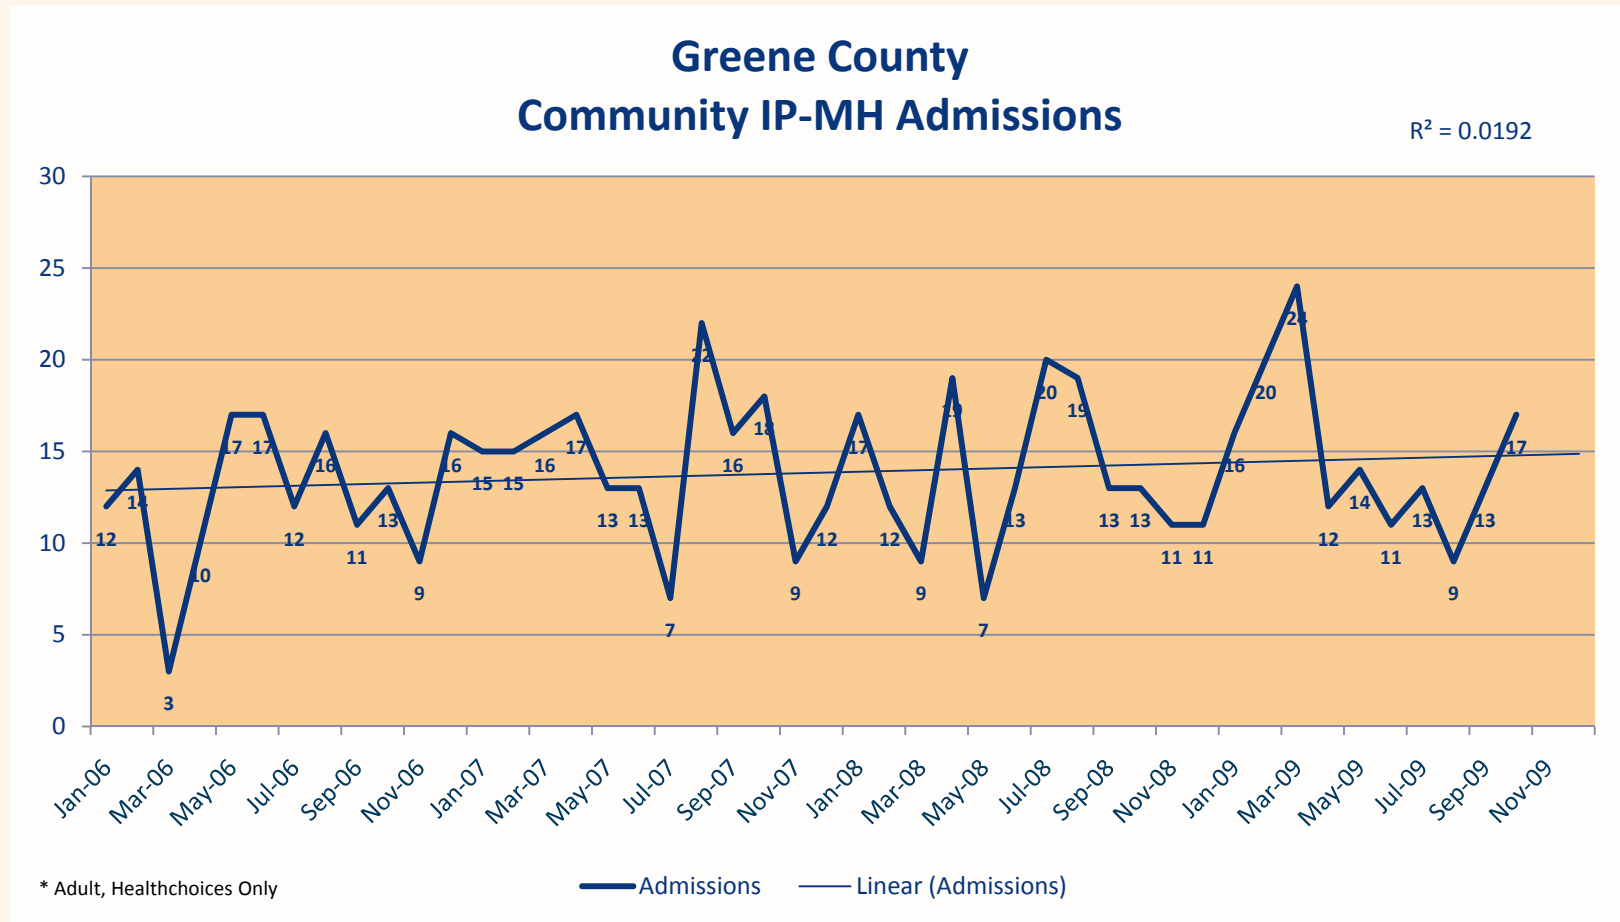

- Admissions per month continue to trend downward.

Inpatient Admissions

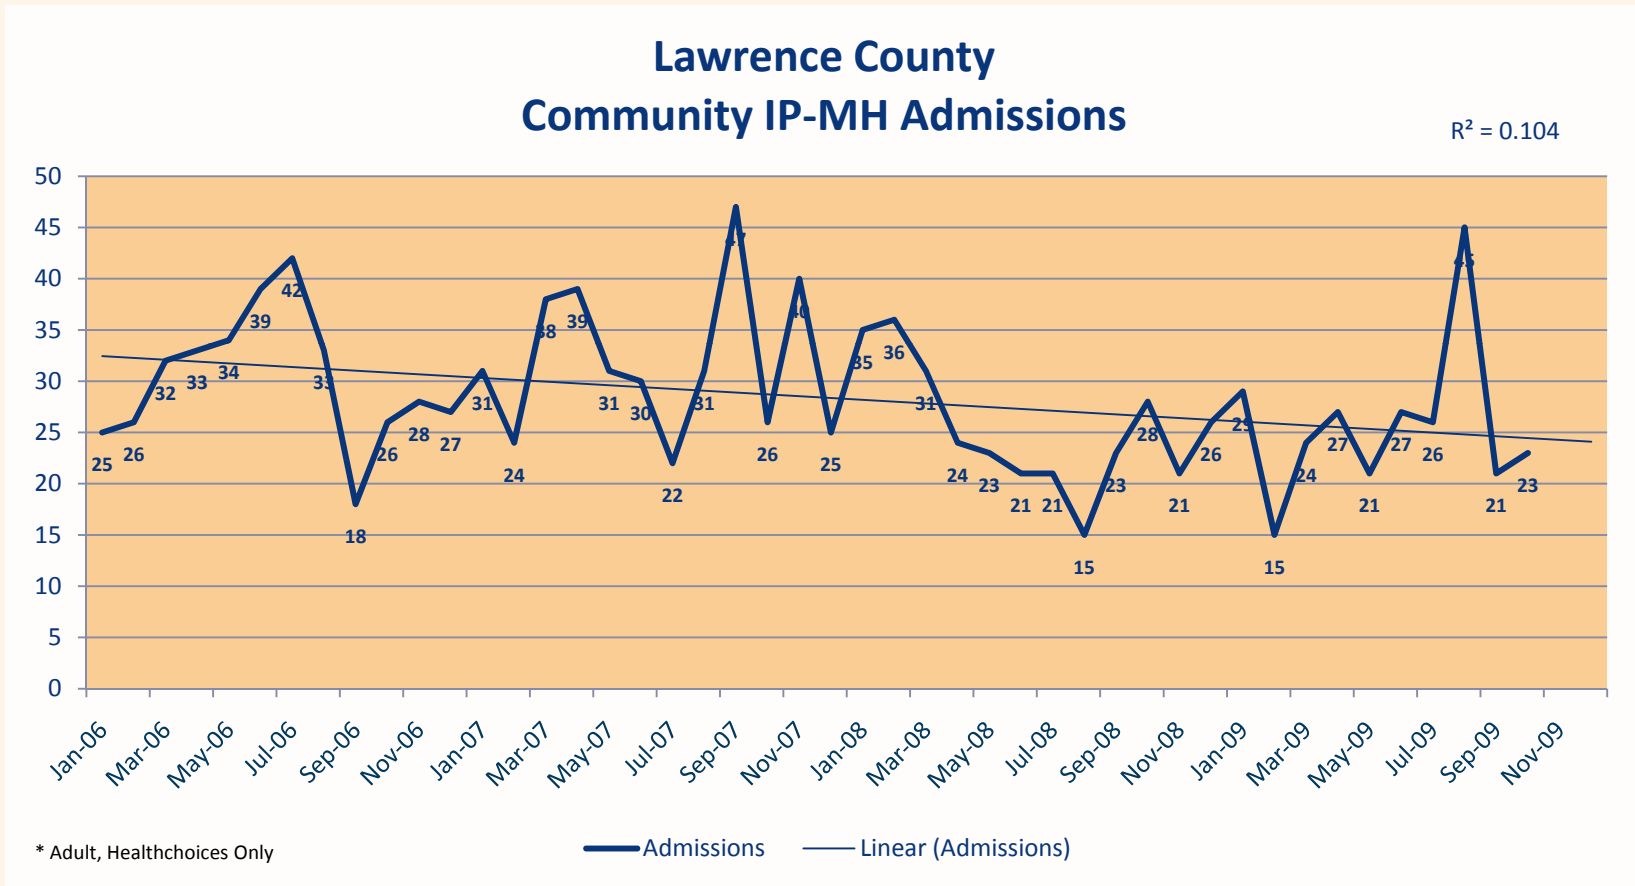

- Admissions continue to vary widely. Of note: the number of admissions in August 2009 was the highest since January 2006.

Inpatient Admissions

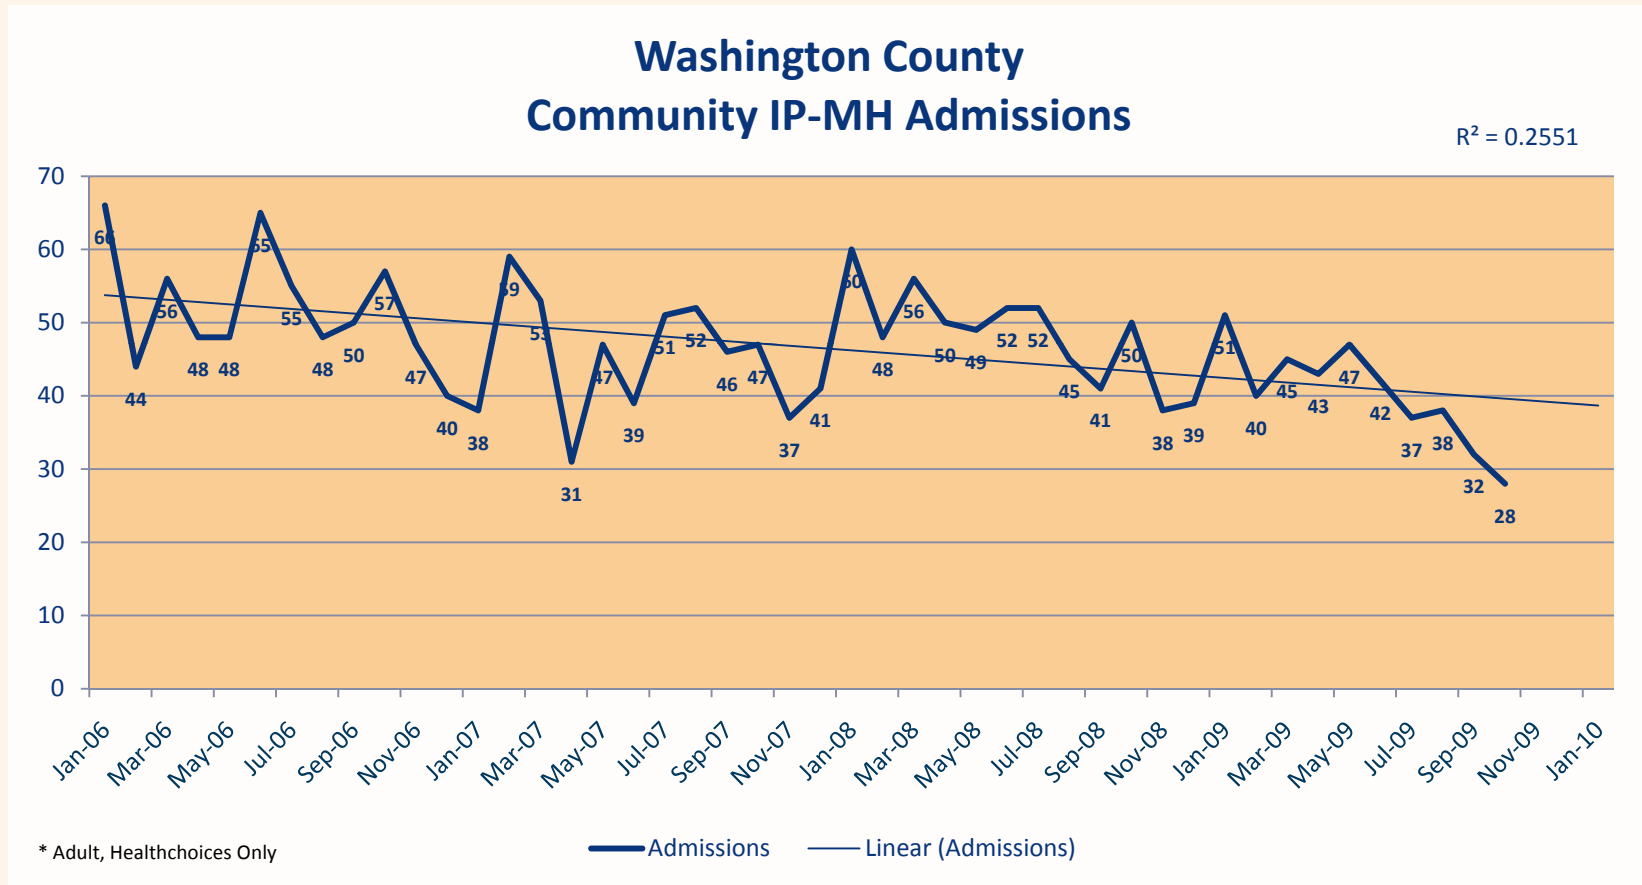

- Admissions are trending slightly upward.

Inpatient Admissions

- Admissions are trending downward; however, the number in August 2009 was the second highest since tracking began.

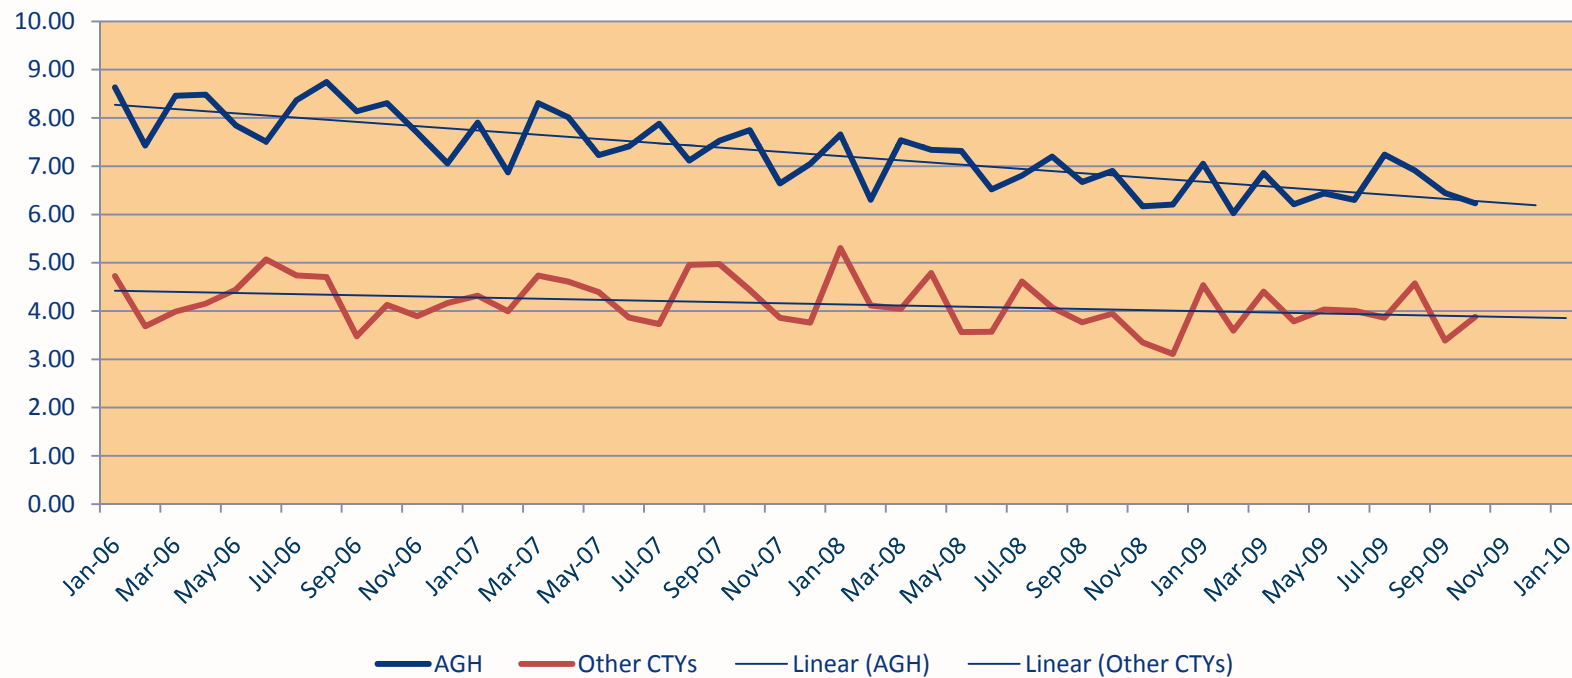

Inpatient Admissions

- Five months of near steady decline.

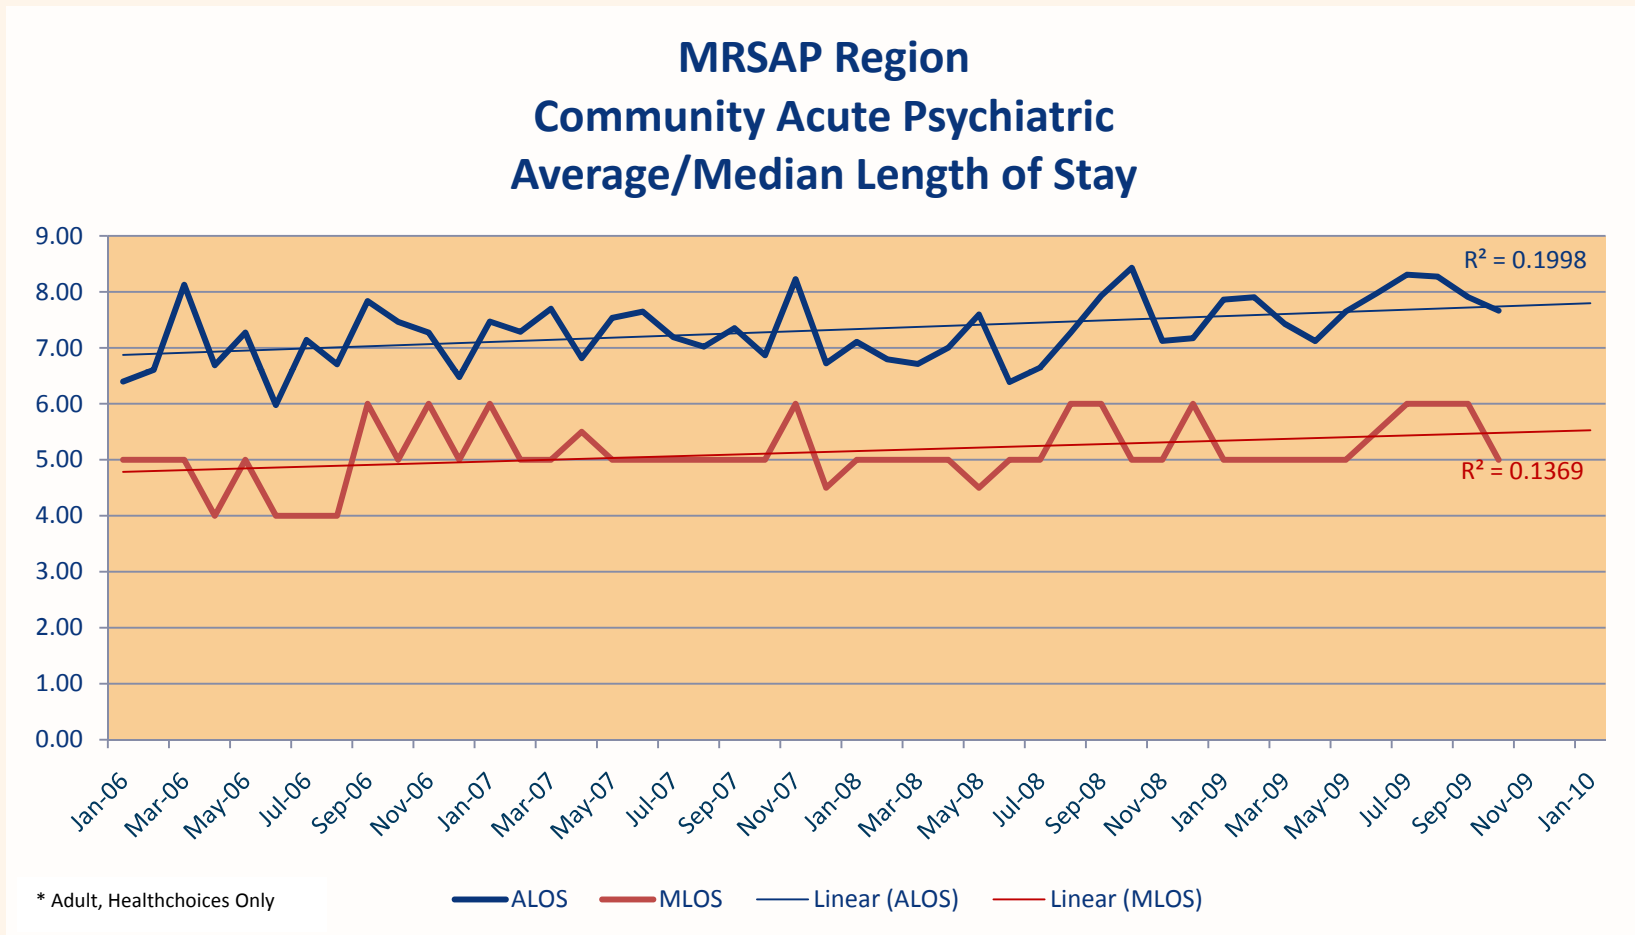

Inpatient Admission Rate

MRSAP Region
Community IP-MH Admission Rate Per 1,000 Enrollees
Allegheny vs. Other Counties

- Allegheny shows the highest admission rate, with an average of 7.28 admissions per 1000 enrollees vs. 4.15 in the other counties.

Inpatient Length of Stay

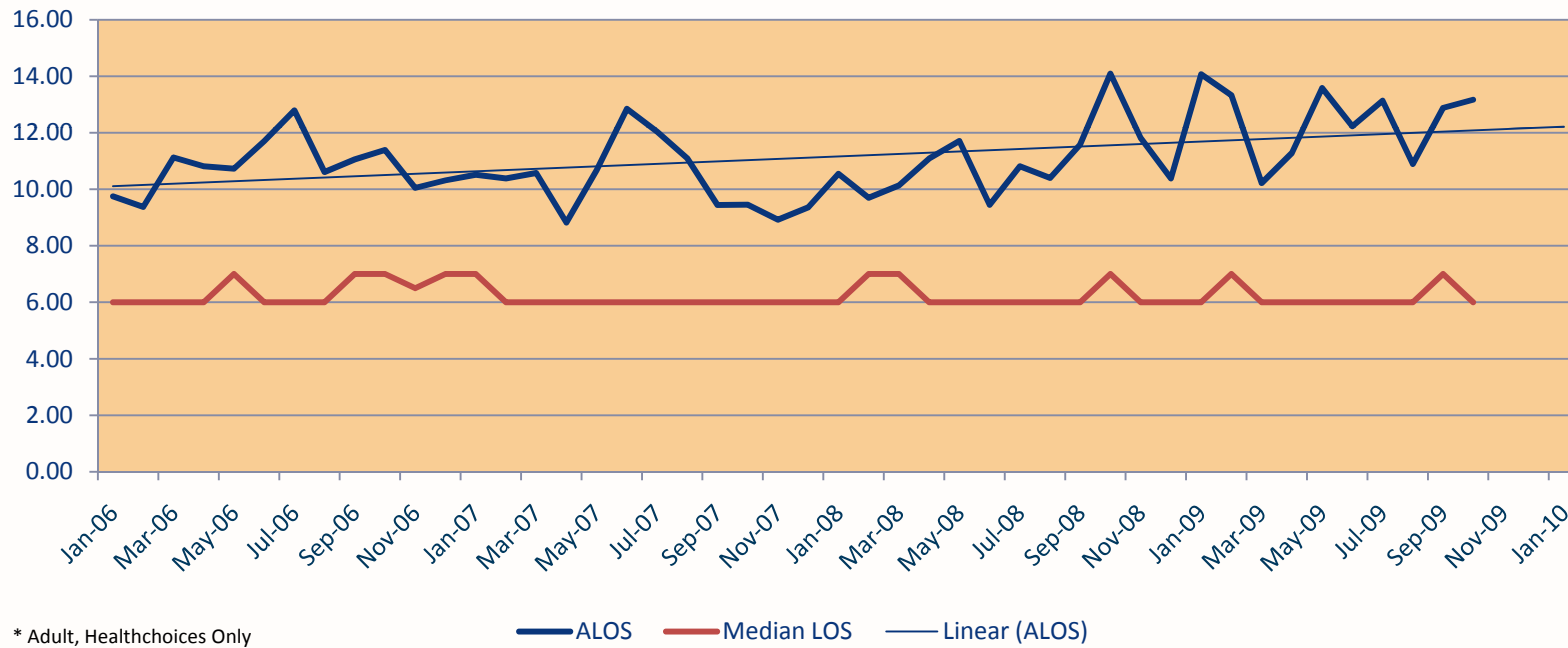

- For the region, ALOS is trending slightly upward. MLOS usually exists between five and six days.

Inpatient Length of Stay

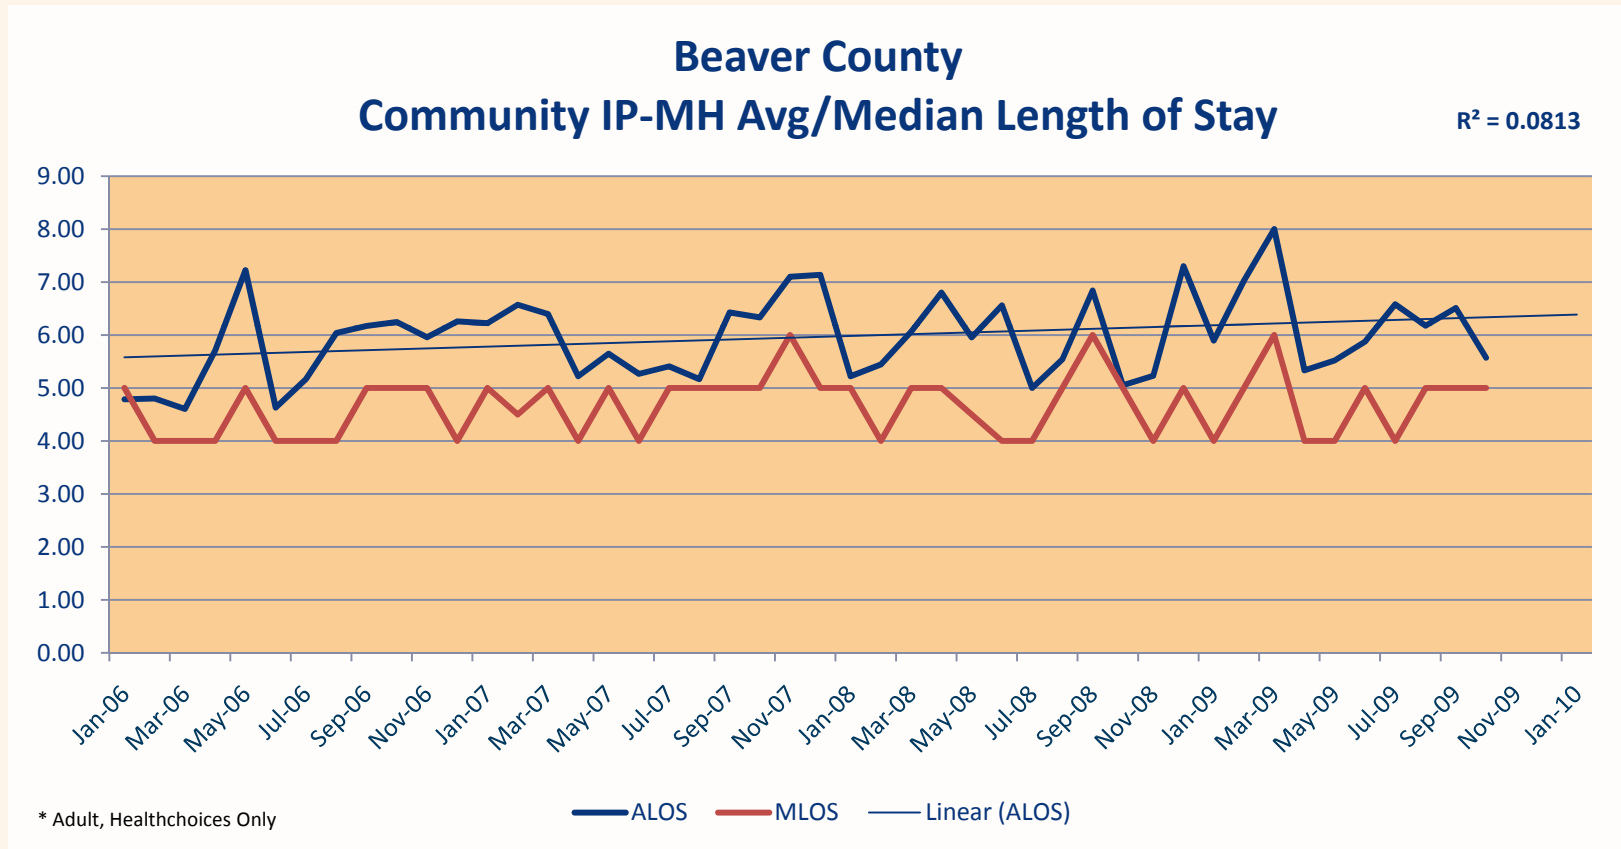

Allegheny County Community Acute Psychiatric Inpatient Avg/Median Length of Stay

R² = 0.1846

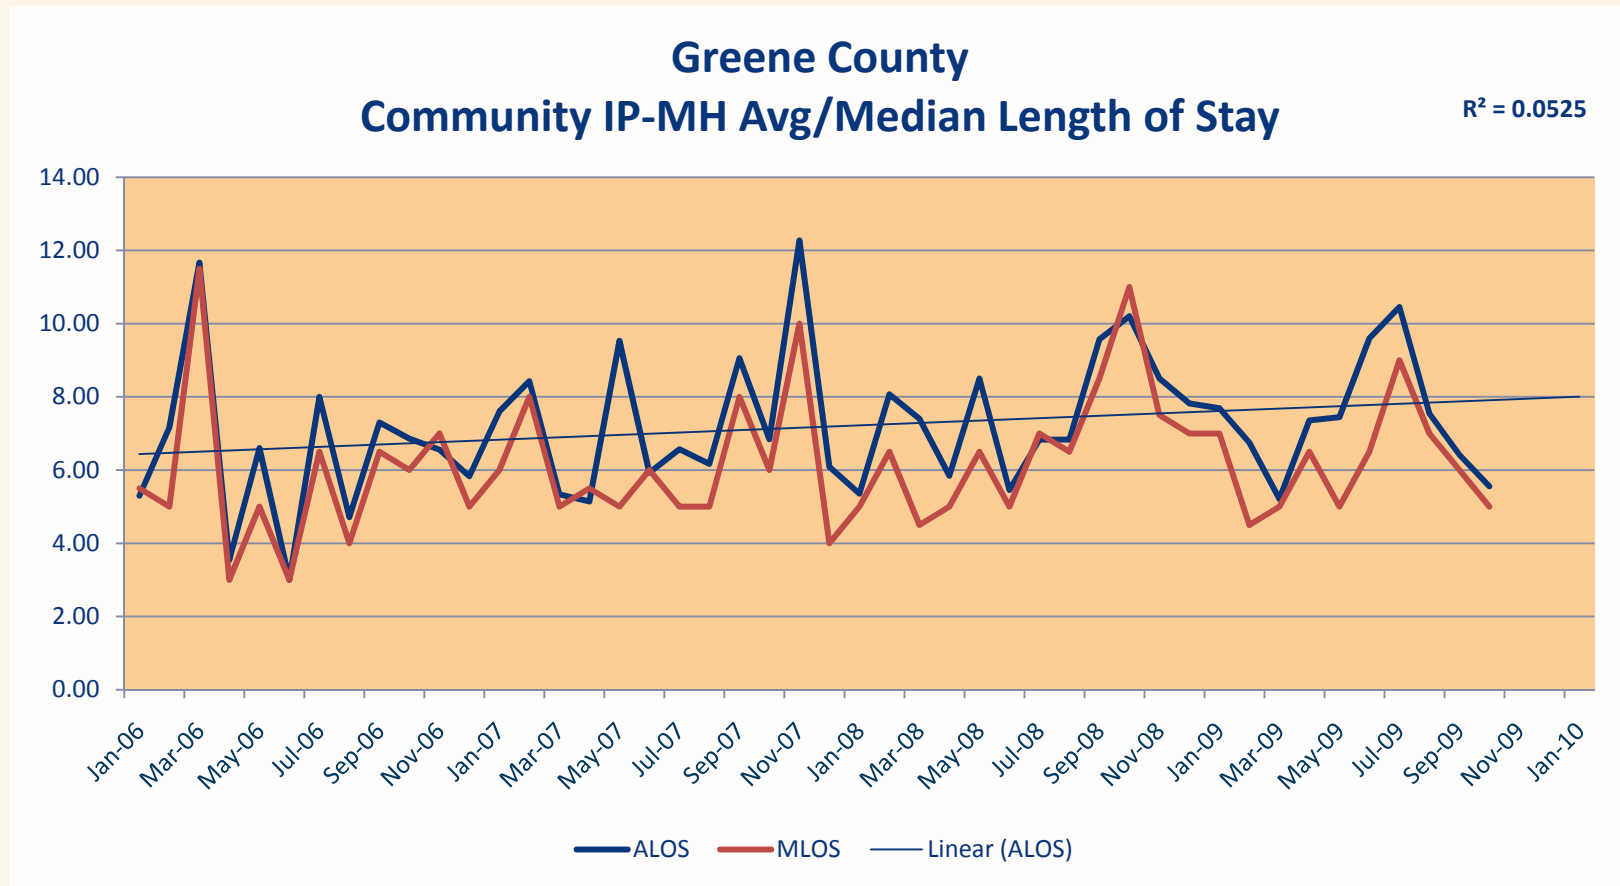

- ALOS is trending slightly upward
- MLOS fluctuates between six and seven days.

Inpatient Length of Stay

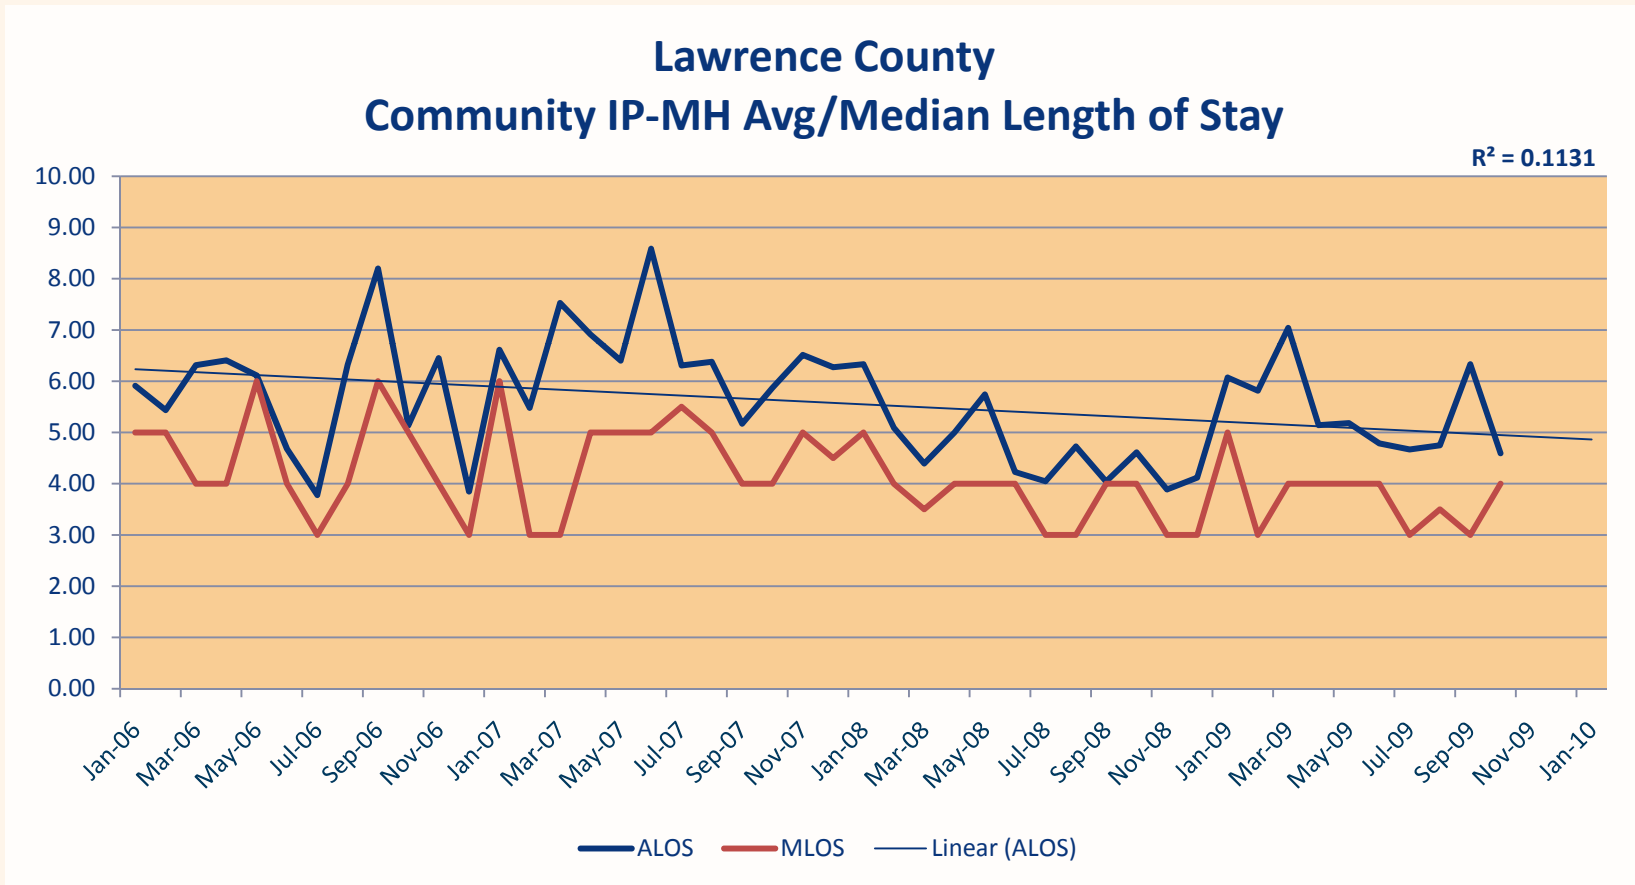

- ALOS per month has increased approximately one day over the entire period.

Inpatient Length of Stay

- ALOS and MLOS continue to fluctuate.

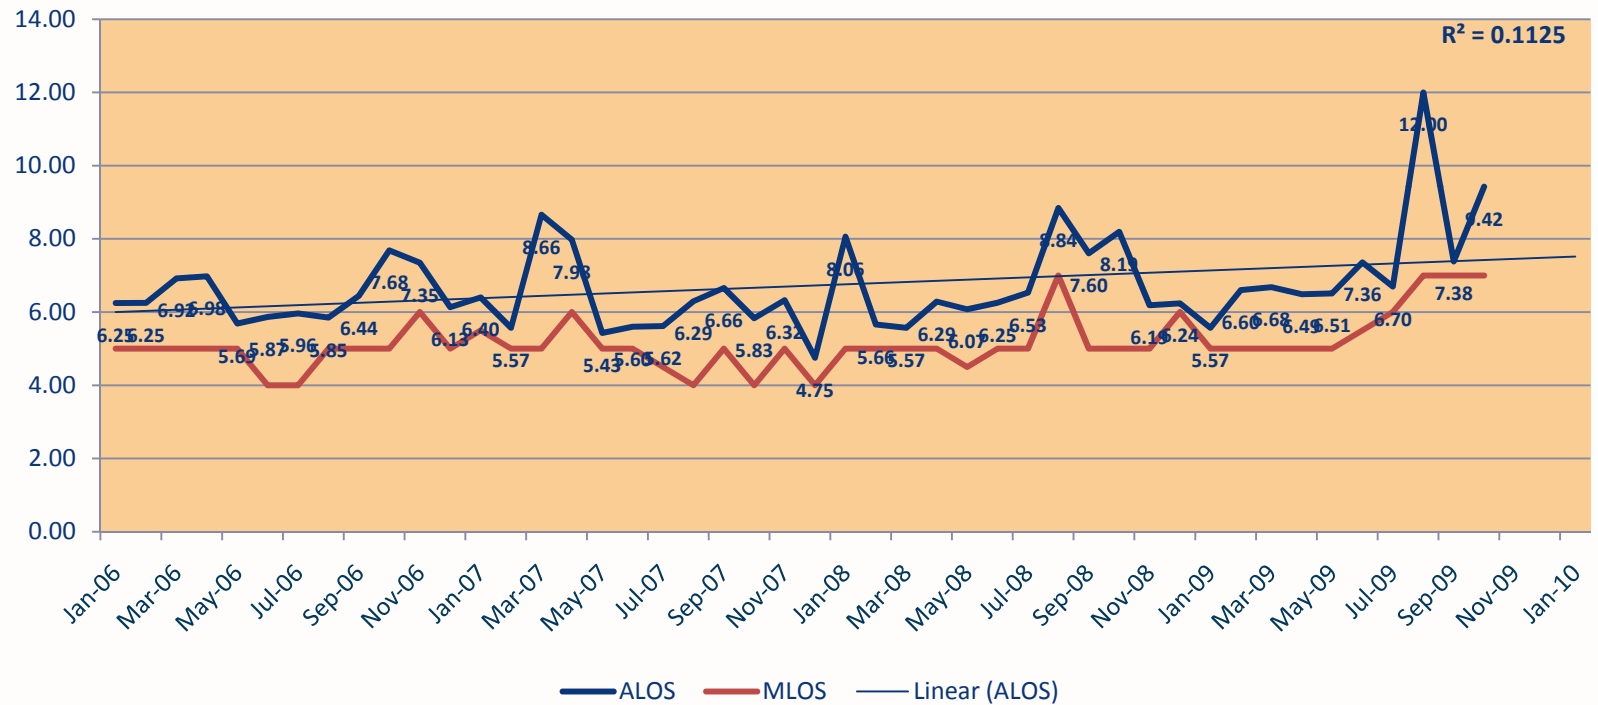

Inpatient Length of Stay

- ALOS is trending downward over the entire period.

Inpatient Length of Stay

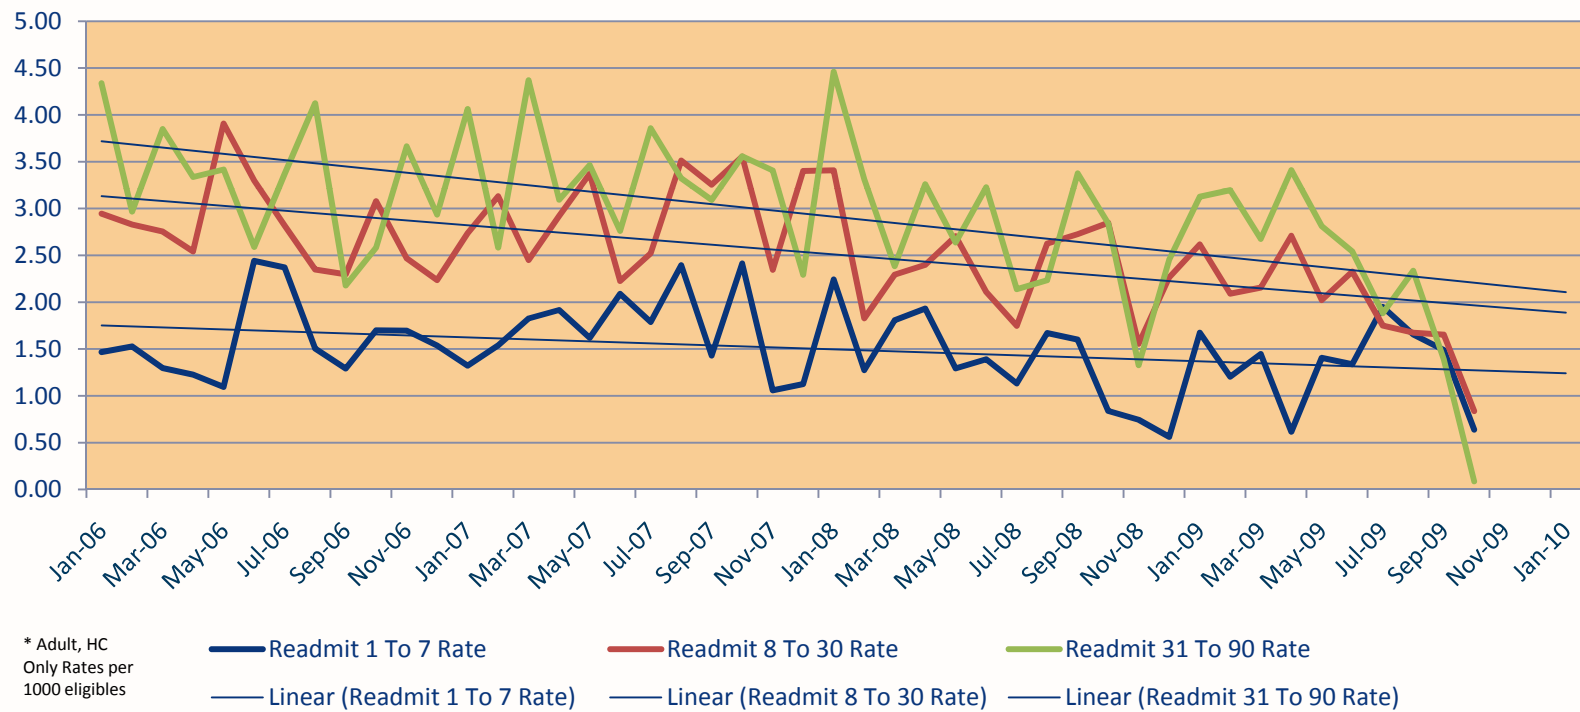

Washington County
Community IP-MH Avg/Median Length of Stay

- A severe spike to 12 days occurred in August 2009. The MLOS has increased by two days over the reporting period.

Inpatient Readmissions

Mayview Region Community Inpatient Readmissions Rates

- Readmission rates for all categories are trending downward.